

Course planning & training process

CELT generally follows the course planning and training process below:

Ten minute meeting with each potential student

Assess current language skills – Council of Europe Level Placement Test

Identify training needs

Group formation

Assign and locate appropriate teaching materials

Assign suitable trainer

Establish lesson schedule and location

Inform student of start date and location