

Translation services

With over 18 years' of experience in business, we deliver fast, accurate language translation services to numerous sectors, including educational, medical, legal, technical, energy, financial, automotive and aerospace. We offer a comprehensive translation service, translating a wide range of documents from English into Swedish and from Swedish into English and all other major languages. All our language translators are native speakers in the language into which they translate.

Whether you want to export to new markets, train a multinational workforce or bid for overseas tenders, we will help you to communicate like a native speaker.

Customers come back to us due to our attention to detail and clear communication which ensures they receive the most cost effective solutions for all their translation needs.